Gentlemen:

In addition to welcoming the establishment of International Association of Scientologists, we must ask you to modify your practices in connection with our trademarks and services marks, to avoid possible problems in the future.

First and most important, we have not consented to your use of the Scientology symbol that appeared on the cover of the folder distributed at the recent convention. You must discontinue all use of that symbol, and refrain from future use of all our marks on your materials.

Second, we note that you are using "R" and "TM" symbols with "Scientology" and "Scientologist" that may be misleading with respect to ownership of these Marks. In the future, please replace the "R" and "TM" symbols with an asterisk (as Scientology*, Scientologist*) and put a footnote notice on any documents where these terms appear, as follows:

"Dianetics™ spiritual healing technology. Scientology® applied religious philosophy"
The Religious Technology Center, 1781 Fountain Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90029

Ex. II-9-E

* "Scientology" is a registered trademark and service mark owned by Religious Technology Center, and "scientologist" is a collective membership mark designating members of the affiliated Churches and Missions of Scientology.

This notice will insure that your uses of these marks do not give the impression that you are a licensee.

Please indicate your agreement by signing, dating and returning the enclosed extra copy of this letter.

Dear Carl,

We have considered your letter of 9th October, 1984, and presently see no objection to your proposal regarding use of the name International Association of Scientologists, as long as all members of the association are in good standing with an affiliated Church or Mission, and so long as you do not render any services or issue any products under any of the service marks or trademarks of the religion.

We will reserve the right to make any objection that may arise in the future, and to require that you terminate use of Scientologist in your name if we see any possibility of harm, at any time.

Sincerely,

Warren McShane
Corporate Secretary

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF SCIENTOLOGISTS

9 OCTOBER, AD34

To: Religious Technology Center

Dear Gentlemen:

As you no doubt realize, an organization named "International Association of Scientologists" was created at St. Hill Manor on 7 October 1984, for the purpose of collective activity for the benefit of the organized religion throughout the planet. The purpose of this letter is to give you official notice of our intentions and to determine whether you have any objection to what we are planning.

At this stage, we anticipate that this association will have meetings from time to time for discussion and fellowship, will publish a newsletter for its members dealing with activities and events of interest to Scientologists and will engage in other activities of this type that are usual to such an association. Annual dues will be established, and a membership card or certificate will be issued.

We will be seeking the cooperation of the affiliated Churches and Missions of Scientology in informing all Scientologists about the availability and benefits of membership in the association. Of course, we will limit membership to those individuals who are in good standing with an official Church or Mission, so as to be entitled to be called a Scientologist. If organizations are allowed to become members, only affiliated and licensed organizations will be accepted.

We believe that the descriptive phrase "International Association of Scientologists" is the appropriate name for the association, and we plan to use this title unless you have an objection. We will not use any of your trademarks or service marks, beyond "Scientologist", except in factual and accurate reference to the affiliated organizations, members and their services, products and activities. We understand that this kind of use does not require a license and is not an infringement. Of course, if you have any objection to any of our activities, we will do whatever you may require to correct that objection.

Please let us know as soon as possible if you are in agreement with the above.

Sincerely,

International Association of Scientologists

Director, By Authority of the Board of Directors.
