

"Cult" Office Gets The All Clear

FOLLOWING complaints by a 15-year-old girl about working conditions, the Sanitary Department of Edinburgh Corporation Public Health Authority inspected the premises of the Publications Organisation World Wide in East Thistle Street Lane, Edinburgh.

The premises are part of the Scientology Cult Administration in Edinburgh.

A spokesman said they had nothing to report except a few minor infringements of the Offices, Shops, and Railway Premises Act.

The inspection was carried out at the request of Councillor Rupert Speyer after he had heard allegations from Kathleen Riley, of Niddrie Place, Marischal, Edinburgh, a former employee of the Scientology Cult.
