POLICE WATCH ON SCIENTOLOGISTS

Letters sent to girl

The activities of Scientologists in Edinburgh are being kept under the scrutiny of the police following the Government's clamp-down on the growth of the cult in Britain.

Mr Robert Campbell, deputy Chief Constable of Edinburgh City Police, said yesterday: "We are interested in this organisation and we are keeping an eye on things."

The police, he said, were investigating a complaint made by Councillor Rupert Speyer regarding letters received by a 15-year-old girl who had been employed by the Scientologists' Publications Organisation World Wide in Edinburgh.
